

Game of Thrones Direwolf Tour

Explore the north lands of Westeros Home to the Stark family. Tour departs from Belfast Northern Ireland, journey south have a meeting with Direwolves on your journey through the Northern Irish countryside, experience ancient forest and medieval castles used as filming locations for the Game of Thrones.

Guides with inside information and several who stared as extras on the series will show you around first hand ancient Westeros.

Step inside Winterfell, Trek the haunted forest beyond the wall, Dress as a Stark in cloak and sword among the ruins of Inch Abbey.

---

Some of the Tours Highlights

- Visit Winterfell ancestral home of the Stark family and many other locations.
  - Meet Summer and Greywind, Bran and Robbs actual Direwolves.
  - Trek Irish Coastline, Forest and historic ruins.
  - Real swords and cloaks to really become apart of the surroundings as you sit in the replica "Throne".
  - Video, Screen shots and behind the scenes stories from guides who were extras involved in the show.
-

10:00AM- King Robbs camp Inch Abbey

"There sits the only king I mean to bend my knee to" – GreatJon Umber

Visit the 12th century Abbey used as the backdrop to where Rob stark the young wolf was crowned "The King in the North".

---

*10:30AM- A visit to St. Patrick's Grave

No tour would be complete without a visit to the burial site of Ireland's patron Saint. Saint Patrick's day is observed on the 17th of March, which is said to be the date of his death.

---

11:30AM- The Wolfs wood Tollymore forest

Tollymore Forest is Ireland's oldest pine forest it has been described as Ireland's redwood forest; it is most famous for the place the Stark's first found their Direwolf pets. -Other scenes include the first ever 15 minutes of Game of Thrones. The scene shows 'Will' the young Nights watch ranger come across a Wildling massacre, Jon and Tyrion's tree is a beautiful river bank where Jon begins to have second thoughts about a life at the wall with little help from Lord Tyrion. The tree stump Jon sat upon has fast become the new blarney stone of the North!
"There hasn't been a Direwolf south of the wall in two hundred years" – Theon Greyjoy

---

13:45PM- Lunch
Traditional Irish Pub/Restaurant

---

14:30PM-Meeting the Direwolves & Stories
Just like the actors the Pups started young and grew into legend listen to the story of how these pups were trained and how their family are a part of the production also. "As close as it gets!"

---

16:00PM- Winterfell
Castle Ward estate

Castle Ward estate is location to a 18th Mansion noted for its unique Architecture, Castle Ward's historic farmyard is the location of Winterfell. Most notable is the 16th century Tower house used as the gate way to Winterfells court yard. Over 20 locations in castle ward estate were used to create Westeros from the Riverlands to battle fields and more.

Memorable scenes include Jamie and Brienne of Tarth leaving Robb's camp on their way to kings landing. The notorious Twins home of Lord Walder Frey, Tyrion & Bronn first meeting after their trial in The Eyrie. Even the Tree King Robb stark and Talisa said their wedding vows.

---

(Short Description)

This involves a replica sword (Ice Ned Starks Sword) for photos and Cloaks that the Starks would have worn. Along with Video and Screen shots of each location and behind the scenes stories at each location as well as first hand account of what its like to film for Game of Thrones Season 6. Including a meeting with the Direwolves and a chance to sit in a Replica version of the Iron throne.

---